

An artistic illustration for a 'Packard Spring Salon' invitation. The scene is set in a vibrant spring landscape. In the foreground, a white rabbit stands on a green hillside dotted with small yellow flowers. To the right, a long, winding path of pink cherry blossoms leads into the distance. The sky is a pale, bright yellow, populated by several small blue birds in flight and a single monarch butterfly with orange and black wings. On the left side, a cluster of pink and white flowers with green leaves frames a white rectangular sign with a thin gold border. The sign contains the text 'Packard' in a cursive font, 'SPRING' in a bold green sans-serif font, and 'SALON' in a bold green sans-serif font.
