TRACK REPORTS

(The Downs, Latonia, Tijuana, Belmont, New Orleans, Devonshire)

Rubber Mat, the Detroit filly, cleaned up nicely. Although on the outside by draw, she was soon placed on the inside by C. Dan. She had covered the entire field at the quarter. Track followers say she will do good at all spring and summer meets.

Adonis, the youthful and graceful jockey who rode Pa Kard was up at 115 and stayed out front from the time the barrier was lifted.

Wind Wings, the two year old, prevented Draft, the world's entry, from getting on the inside through the first half. Indications are that the former will set a new record for a windy stretch.

Aristocrat, the Met All Cover entry looks real classy and felt right at home at the Downs. You probably will not see her at the less important meets - but always entered where class counts.

Yours for speed,

Addie Quigley
